Survivor Engagement

"Survivor engagement allows organizations to better serve clients, craft programs, identify challenges and opportunities, and achieve agency missions and mandates. As a primary stakeholder in the anti-trafficking field, survivor leaders offer invaluable insight and expertise."

Principles of Survivor Engagement

Survivors are more than their lived experience.

Engaging survivors as partners requires intentionality.

Supporting partnerships with survivors requires commitment and investment of resources.

Values of Meaningful Engagement

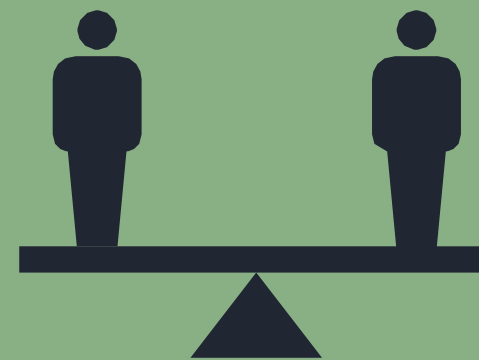

Self-determination

Dignity

Trauma-informed

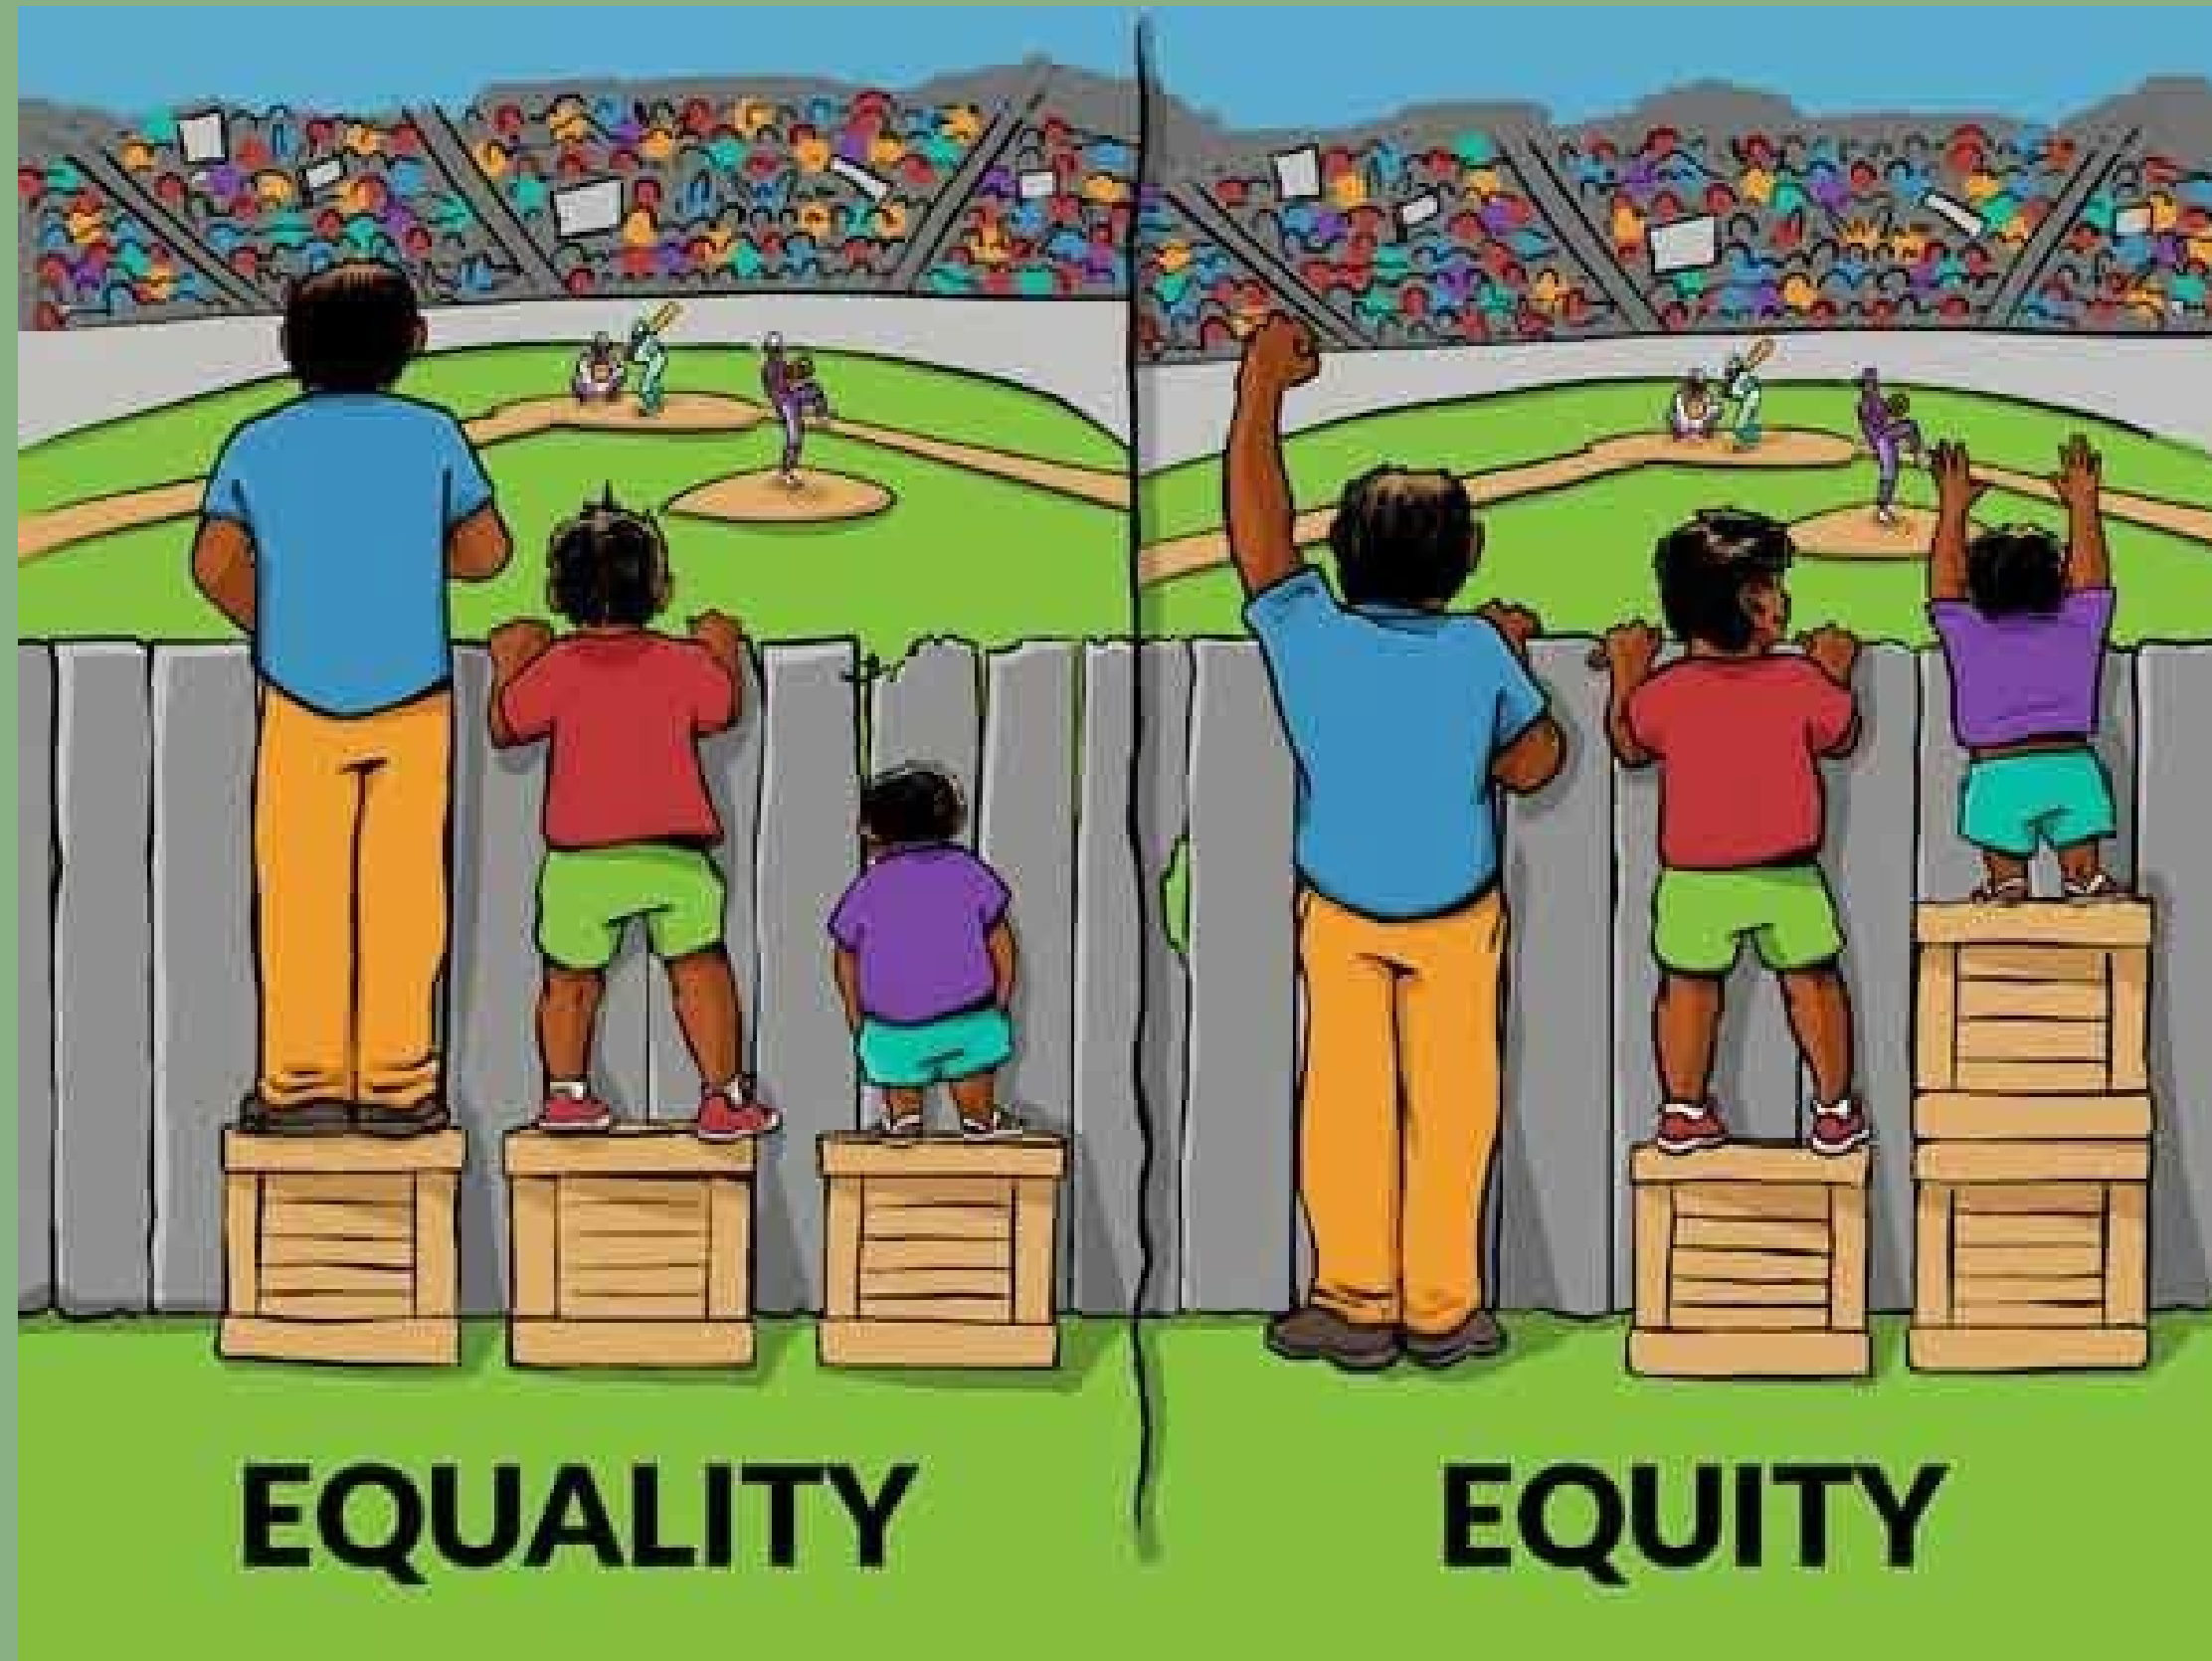

Equality and Equity

Ways to Meaningfully Engage Survivors
